Manta Update

With less than 6 months to go until the opening of our new attraction, Manta, about 40% of the track has been installed, and excellent progress is being made on the support building and loading station construction. Manta is the next generation of SeaWorld® thrills. You'll glide, speed, soar and dive like a ray on an experience that only SeaWorld could create. Manta, coming summer 2012 only to SeaWorld San Diego.

The 2012 SeaWorld San Diego Fun Card

There's always a reason to visit with a SeaWorld San Diego Fun Card. A calendar full of fun seasonal events plus incredible rides, shows and attractions are waiting for you. The 2012 Fun Card includes admission to SeaWorld San Diego until Dec. 31, 2012. Selected blackout dates apply and does not include free parking or discounts on food, merchandise or guest admission tickets. Buy your 2012 Fun Card today where your discount tickets are sold!

Spotlight on Penguin Encounter

Spend some time with some of our park's coolest characters. Watch the playful antics of penguins tall and small — nearly 300 in all. Our penguin population includes regal emperor penguins, and smaller Adelie, gentoo and macaroni penguins. Did you know the lighting in the Penguin Encounter mimics the natural light cycle in Antarctica, letting the penguins know when it is time to breed? This means that during the summer, the Penguin Encounter will be completely dark!

Learn about penguins and our Penguin Encounter at one of our Penguin Presentations. Check the park map for presentation times on your next visit.
